

Building Our Community: Hmong in the Chippewa Valley

Tuesdays

October 18, November 1, and November 15
1–4:30 p.m. • Riverview Room

This three-part series will dive deep into the history of Hmong people in China, their participation in the Secret War, their immigration journey to the United States, and finally, the experiences of Hmong residents here in the Chippewa Valley.

October 18	An Introduction to the Hmong
November 1	The Secret War and the Hmong Diaspora
November 15	Living Among Us: Engaging with the Hmong Community

The three events will be facilitated by three emerging Hmong women-owned consulting businesses:

CML Consulting, Roots Consulting, and KV Consulting. Collectively, they have invested over 20 years of community engagement here in the Eau Claire area, specializing in EDI, Hmong language and culture, and capacity-building training.

Registration is required. Go to ecpubliclibrary.info/events.
